DAVID MALOS GET THEIRS

LAHAINA, March 22.—One of the best games of baseball was pulled off on the Kilohana park last Saturday, between the crack David Malos and the Rast Mauis; the former were defeated by the close score of 6 to 5. The game was an interesting one, and some fine playing was done by the winning team. Anyway both teams old well, and the game was played in an hour and ten Twirler Levi of the David Malos pitched a very good game, but the East Manin swatted his hunches of curves all over the field in the last inning. There was a good-sized erowd to see the game, and the fams cheered loudly for their favorites. The East Manis will face the Mid-Pacific team this coming Saturday.

Joking on one side, Tommy Mar-lowe is there with the goods and his introduction to a Honolulu audience will be a great event. The boys at the cantonments have made up a pot to wager on him and anybody who wants to make a noise like real money can very easily get it covered.

There will be a large aggregation of cavalry boys down to watch their man box Wahilani, and the latter will be up against a great piece of cathu-siasu. The local boxer, however, has a great many admirers, and there will be something doing when they get together.

The main event should be productive large bunch of doings.

Take it all around, the show looks like a great drawing-card. Most of the boys are well known here, and those who are not are such unknown quantities that the excitement of see-ing what they can do will be more than worth while. Thirty rounds of boxing with twelve participants look pretty good and the show ought to a ten strike, the cold. There are no details obtainable as to just what the pilikia was, but it is understood that Dr. Roller did not hand Pete the lovely strawberry that he promised. It seems to have been more of a lemon. The big doctor turned out a fizzle in the boxing business, and his great trip round the world he spoke of, with Pete Baron as his train-er in-chief, does not seem to have materialized.

PETE BARON IS COMING BACK

Whatever the cause that has brought him, we must welcome the good old boy back again. A bunch of those who saw Pete off are going to get to-gether and give him aloha on his re-turn. Let us do our best to warm the old boy's heart with a rousing welcome when he comes back to Honolulu.

But Congress has been a su-preme test to many a President. It was to Cleveland, to Harrison and to Roosevelt, Congress has made Presidents pass many a sleepless night. It may, or may not, give President Taft insomnia before the spring and sammer nre over.

The incoming Congress is a problem to its leaders. They have been wrest-ling days and nights over its program. Little wonder that it should give a new President quite as much worry.
For he is the party leader, as well as the President. The country, in the long run, holds him responsible. It may long run, holds him responsible. It may biame the Speaker. It may blame the Senate. Constituencies may blame, their respective members of the House in certain instances. But after the man at the crossroads has argued it all out, if Congress displeases him, he puts the blame upon the man in the White House. Ditto, the credit, if Congress canets the laws that please him.

President Taft is playing a strong hand thus far. To be sure he has had the first round. What will happen hand thus far. To be sure he has had had thus far. To be sure he has had no legislative experience. He never even served as a member of any minor even served as a member of any minor législative body. In that regard he is in the same class with Cleveland. Har-rison had been a United States Senator from Indiana for six years. Garfield was a veteran in the House, as Mc-Kinley had been. McKinley got along splendidly with Congress, but every congressman felt as though McKinley was one of his own clan. There is much of the clan in your average senwas one of his own clan. There is much of the clan in your average sent ator and average member. He likes men who speak the language of his tribe. Cleveland did not speak the congressional dialect; neither did Roosevelt, although in his younger days he had been a member of the New York legislature, But President Taft has had more experience with Congress than either Cleveland or Roosevelt had had. He has "worked" bills through the Senate and through the House. All in all he has had a very good preparatory training.

The conferences and parleys that The conferences and parelys that precede every important session of Congress call for much tact and much resourcefulness on the part of a President. Mr. Taft has been going through that ordeal during the last ten days. He has stood it very satisfactorily, at least from the standpoint of the men who rule at the Capitol. He has refused to treat with insurgents, who, of course, are a small minority. He has shown great firmness in adhering to his views, but at the same time has been cour-teous and considerate of Republican congressmen with whom he found him-self at odds. And on the whole these insurgents, most of whom are Western entertain nothing but good will

for him.

Mr. Taft has been laboring assiduously to master the details of his office and to keep abreast of the duties. He has worked long hours. He is following the plan of trying to handle but one big proposition at a time. The country has been full of gossip and of the least considerations with the ed by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and President ever since he came into of fice. He decided at the very start to give his attention to the thing nearest at hand—which is the revision of the Agents for Howaii.

SOLDIER FLOURISHES KNIFE AND IS ARRESTED

Brandishing a large-sized knife, Joseph Bohr, a soldier from Leilehun, made the rounds of the automobile and hack stands late last night, threatand hack stands fate last night, threat-ening to do up anyone who interfered with him. He handled roughly a crip-pled lad employed at the Young Hotel garage, then attempted to start a rough-house at Lewis' garage, just neross the street. Jerry Rooney, un automobile driver, knocked him down once, when he drew a knife, but the soldier leaped to his feet and ran down

Fort street,
A little later he started to boast things at the hack stand on the corner of King and Fort streets, and the po-lice were sent for. When Bohr saw the officers coming for him, he threw off his coat, drew his big knife, and prepared to do battle. It was only after a strenuous struggle that the three officers were able to get the man into the "hurry-up" wagon, and even then they had to fight to get the vicious-looking knife away from him. He ious-looking knife away from him. He did not appear to be drunk when taken to the station-house, his actions being more those of a crazy man.

At the police station he put up a fierce struggle and it took the combined strength of three officers to hold him. At first he refused to give his name, later stating that it was Joseph Bohr, and that he was from Leilehua

Pleiades Today; Her Cargo.

The American-Hawaiian steamer Pleiades will arrive here from San Fran cisco today with a big cargo. She has nearly 4000 tons of freight, among which are 10,000 cases of coal oil, 509 tons of cement, and 300 tons of tin, the latter being for use at the various canneries in the Islands. It is thought probable that the Pleiades will arrive here this morning, though she may not get in until some time during the af-

The Kaiser has issued an edict for-bidding officers of the Army and Navy from smoking in the presence of women in evening dress and revives an old regulation by which smoking is forbid-den in the courtyards and vestibules of the imperial palace.
